-  Produce
-  Promote

The Meetings Imagined concept provides a new approach to planning meetings based on these seven different purposes: celebrate, decide, educate, ideate, network, produce and promote.

Ideate

Generating new ideas and promoting new ways of thinking require perfectly orchestrated events, so you and your delegates can focus on what really matters.

Set-up: Open spaces, natural light and movable furnishings to foster creativity.

Food and Drink: Playful and interactive food experiences can provide inspiration.

Tech and Supplies: Supplies should make creative work easy.

Experiences: Look outside the usual environment to spark creativity.

productivity perfectly achieved

Educate

With over 8,000 square meters, the hotel's state-of-the-art meeting space is crafted for performance with a comprehensive range of equipment and services that will enable you to work productively and successfully.

Set-up: Set-up to foster interaction and collaboration among attendees.

Food and Drink: Food and presentation that energise.

Tech and Supplies: Hands-on learning opportunities, supplies that reflect accomplishments.

Experiences: that set the tone for learning and mental focus.

Produce

Expertly editing all distractions, we create bespoke environments conducive to effective production and supporting your purpose with energy fuelling breaks.

Set-up: Flexible space allows you to work as a group, or divide and conquer.

Food and Drink: Simple foods let you focus on the work you are doing.

Tech and Supplies: Enable productive work with tech and supplies that facilitate sharing.

Experiences: Energise to keep productive momentum.

Decide

We bring an expert finesse to your event when the objective is to engage in meaningful dialogue in order to reach a decision.

Set-up: Ensure attendees have clear sight lines to each other and the presentation.

Food and Drink: Simple, easily available foods place focus on the discussion.

Tech and Supplies: Technology to make content and people accessible.

Experiences: to keep discussions on track.

Network

Networking events are a great opportunity for business partners and industry peers to meet and to establish or to strengthen business relationships.

Set-up: Create spaces for informal conversations.

Food and Drink: Serve foods that make conversation easy.

Tech and Supplies: Use technology to make an impact.

Experiences: Create memorable connections over shared moments.

Promote

Whether a new product launch or promoting new ideas, the hotel's international event planning team will make sure your catered event will be unique and successful, featuring innovative concepts and bespoke menus.

Set-up: Create a center stage for your product.

Food and Drink: Foods and displays that support the message.

Tech and Supplies: Use technology to make an impact.

Experiences: Create memorable connections to the product.

Celebrate

Two state-of-the-art ballrooms, 32 flexible meeting rooms and three stunning outdoor venues create an inspired atmosphere that will set the stage for an unforgettable event.

Set-up: Use set-ups to make guests feel welcome and appreciated.

Food and Drink: Create memories with culinary offerings.

Tech and Supplies: Personalise the event with technology.

Experiences: Create memories with special touches.
